

PUB ADM 630 - Budgeting and Finance in the Public Sector Fall, 2019

Adjunct Professor: Steven Kreklow

e-mail: kreklows@uwm.edu

Office Hours: By Appointment

Required Texts:

Bland, Robert L. 2013. A Budgeting Guide for Local Government, 3rd ed. ICMA Press.
ISBN 0873267672

Kavanagh, Shayne, 2012, Financial Policies, GFOA
ISBN 0891252703

National Performance Management Advisory Commission; A Performance Measurement Framework for State and Local Government

<http://www.gfoa.org/sites/default/files/APerformanceManagementFramework.pdf>

Supplies

We may be doing a few exercises that require calculations, so a basic calculator or app would be handy. I will tell you a week in advance when we will be doing such exercises. This course is partially taught online. Internet access is required.

Course Description:

This course provides an overview of the processes, techniques, and politics of public budgeting. The purpose of this course is to provide a foundation for understanding the nature of public budgeting primarily at the local (i.e., municipal) level. Special emphasis will be placed on financial policies and applied budgeting techniques. This is NOT a course about the politics of the budgetary process at the federal level.

No prior background in budgeting is necessary to do well in this course. The student makeup of this course varies considerably and typically ranges from upper-division undergraduates with no experience in budgeting to senior level MPA students with public sector work experience.

Our focus in this course is on general principles of budgeting. Variations in budgeting methods/procedures across governments are common, so if you have nuanced questions that deal with specific procedures used where you're working, please ask these questions at break or after class. Having said this, if you are confused about a topic, you should certainly not be afraid to ask questions.

Learning Outcomes

You should know the following after taking this course:

1. Competency in basic principles of public sector budgeting and finance. Even if your primary career goal does not involve budgeting and finance, competent public sector managers still need to understand basic the language of public budgeting and finance and the meaning of various budgeting techniques and policies.
2. How to think critically about budgeting. For some of the exercises, there are not always obvious “right” answers. Coming up with answers to these questions will force you to explain and defend the rationales for your work.

Course Requirements

Your grade in the course will be based on the following:

1. Exam 1 - 30 percent of your final grade.
2. Exam 2 - 30 percent of your final grade.

The second exam is not a cumulative final. It will only cover material presented after the midterm exam.

3. Budget exercise assignments - 30 percent of your final grade – Three exercises will be assigned. The instructions for each exercise will be distributed two weeks before the due date.

Homework is to be completed individually. If you want to check your work against that of another student, that’s fine, but each student is responsible for handing in his/her own assignments.

4. Short reaction memos - 10 percent of your final grade. This will be two brief memos reacting an article from a professional journal such as Government Finance Review, Governing, The Municipality, Public Management, Wisconsin Policy Forum Focus or Public Administration Review that addresses topic covered in the class.

In addition to attendance being a component of your grade, any student who does not attend a minimum of 4 onsite class sessions may automatically receive an “F” for the course, regardless of performance on the other grading components.

You have to complete all the grading components to earn a grade for the course; you can’t just choose the ones you want to complete. A zero on any one of the above grading components may result in an “F” grade for the course.

U/G Grading Policy

Undergraduates are graded differently on the budget exercise and short reaction paper assignments.

If are you an undergraduate and ignore these differences or simply want to be graded under the same standards as graduate students, that's fine. I will assume this is the case if you hand in all the same assignments as the graduate students; however, doing this will NOT count as extra credit.

Grading Scale used to determine final course grade

A 93-100	A- 90-92.9
B+ 87-89.9	B 83-86.9	B- 80-82.9
C+ 77-79.9	C 73-76.9	C-70-72.9
D+ 67-69.9	D 63-66.9	D-60-62.9	F 0-59.5

Accommodations for Disabled Students

Students with disabilities should contact me early in the semester so that any special accommodations can be made promptly.

Makeup Exam Policy

Makeup exams will differ from regular exams. Makeup exams will only be given if you have a University excused absence. An absence is considered excused if you can provide official documentation, such as a note from a physician or a court order.

Makeup exams will only be given under the following circumstances.

Number 1. You have a University excused absence. An absence is considered excused if you can provide official documentation of a medical condition, such as a note from a physician or a court order. A work schedule that overlaps/interferes with the course is NOT considered an excused absence.

Number 2. You must contact me prior to the exam or by 5pm on the day of the exam if you need to take a makeup.

Makeup exams must be completed within a reasonable amount of time (normally before the next class session). Makeup exams will differ in format and content from regular exams. Makeup exams must be completed within a reasonable amount of time (normally before the next class session). If your schedule is so tight that you claim you don't have time to take a makeup exam, I will assign two possible makeup exam times. You will be required to either pick one of the two times or take a zero for the exam in question.

If you do not have official documentation for an excused absence, then I am not required to give you a makeup exam.

If I decide to allow a makeup exam in the case of an unexcused absence, there will be an automatic 10 point deduction from whatever grade you earn on the exam. The easiest way to avoid this penalty is to show up for the scheduled exams.

If you miss a class you will need to obtain notes from another student. Handouts are posted on Canvas each week. I do not bring handouts with me to class.

I have supplied my e-mail address above. Please use e-mail to notify me of absences or to ask simple questions. If you have detailed questions about materials covered in the readings or lectures you should ask these questions in person.

Academic Conduct:

Students are expected to follow the Guide for Students at http://uwm.edu/deanofstudents/conduct/conduct_procedures/academic-misconduct/. According to this source, "Plagiarism includes: 1) Directly quoting the words of others without using quotation marks or indented format to identify them; or, 2) Using sources of information (published or unpublished) without identifying them; or, 3) Paraphrasing materials or ideas of others without identifying the sources."
–University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Graduate School, "Academic Misconduct," Website, Available online:
http://uwm.edu/deanofstudents/conduct/conduct_procedures/academic-misconduct/, August 2017.

Other Course Policies

This course adheres to campus policies regarding students with disabilities, religious observances, active military service, incompletes, discriminatory conduct, academic misconduct, complaints about the course, grade appeals, and firearms. For details about these policies, see <https://uwm.edu/secu/syllabus-links/> click on "syllabus links."

Topics and Schedule:

All dates for the topics are approximate. We will generally stick to this schedule, but the time it takes to cover topics varies each semester, so the dates you see listed may not exactly match the topics listed. We will also be having a couple of guest speakers and I may have to shuffle a date or two around if their availability changes.

Date	Location	Topic(s)	Readings/Lecture	Other Assignments
9/9	Bolton	Class Overview
9/16	Online	Introduction to Financial Policies and Policies for Reserves	Kavanagh Ch. 1-5
9/23	Bolton	Discussion Questions		Reaction Memo 1
10/7	Online	Revenue, Expense, Operating Budget, Capital Assets and Long-Range Planning Policies	Kavanagh Ch. 6-10
10/14	Bolton	Discussion Questions and Guest Speaker		Reaction Memo 2
10/21	Online	Debt, Investment, Accounting, Controls and Risk, Economic Development and Procurement Policies	Kavanagh Ch. 11-16
10/28	Online			Exam 1
11/4	Online	Property and other taxes, Fees, Charges for Services and Strategic Choice	Bland Ch. 1-4
11/11	Bolton	Discussion Questions	Bland Ch. 5-6	Exercise: Revenue Forecasting
11/18	Online	Budget Choices and the Budget Cycle, Capital Budgeting	Bland Ch. 7-11
11/25	Bolton	Discussion Questions	Bland 12	Exercise: Capital Budgeting
12/2	Online	Performance Management	Performance Management Framework
12/9	Bolton	Discussion Questions Guest Speaker		Exercise: Local Government Budget Review Analysis
12/16	Online			Exam 2

Estimated Work Hours

The UWM Faculty Senate has asked instructors to include information about the work hours associated with the course for the semester. The work effort for a 3 credit course is supposed to equal 144 hours. These are VERY ballpark estimates.

Lecture/Discussion	28 hours (2.0 hours per week)
Reading/Video assignments	56 hours (4.0 hours per week)
Homework	30 hours (2.0 hours per week)
Studying for Exams	30 hours (2.0 hour per week)